except the same songs everyday i know i'll make it back to you beneath those lonely stars well we ain't got nothin to say except another wasted day i know i'll hear you singin'

underneath those lonely stars underneath the stars

well i ain't got nowhere to go except another lonesome road
i know i'll make it back to you

we ain't got nothin lose i got my head stuck in a noose

underneath those lonely...
